

Farmfair International 2016 General Rules & Regulations

A. Interpretation & Administration of Rules and Regulations

1. For the purposes of the general rules & regulations:

“Farmfair International” shall mean Edmonton Northlands, operating as Northlands, its directors, employees, agents, officials and officers.

“Exhibitor” means any breed or operation which owns and presents animals or products either for official placing buy judge or for display and/or sale to the public.

“Participant(s)” means the exhibitor(s), owner(s), competitor(s), their agent(s) and/or representative(s).

2. By submitting an application entry, Exhibitors and Participants agree to comply with all the Farmfair International rules and regulations and all association sanctioned show and sale rules set forth.
3. Farmfair International reserves the right to itself to interpret these rules and regulations and to fairly and impartially settle and determine all matter, questions and differences in regard thereto or otherwise arising out of or connected with or incident to Farmfair International, and the right to amend or add to the rules and regulations as it deems appropriate. A Participant who violates any of the following rules and regulations will be subject to such penalties as Farmfair International may order and such other penalties as prescribed by law.
4. Specific or special rules and regulations or conditions are published in each section or on the individual prize list and entry forms where necessary. See Beef, Equine and Small Livestock sections of the General Rules & Regulations.

B. General

5. Indemnity

The Exhibitor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Northlands from any claims, losses, damages, liabilities and expenses (including legal fees and expenses on a solicitor and own client basis) arising out of, or in any way incidental to, the Exhibitor’s operation, except those occurring by reason of Northlands sole negligence. This provision shall survive the termination or expiration of this agreement.

6. Cancellation/ Postponement of Shows

Northlands reserves the right to cancel, postpone or change the location of any show for any reason without being liable for compensation. Every effort will be used to notify the exhibitor if the show is cancelled.

7. Livestock Agreement

All beef exhibitors are required to complete the Livestock Exhibitor License Agreement. Please review each paragraph of the Agreement and provide endorsing signature in the space provided. Completed Agreement should accompany the completed entries at the time of submission.

8. Insurance

In an effort to continually find ways to assist participating FFI 2016 Exhibitors, Foster Park Basket Insurance Brokers have agreed to continue work with Exhibitors to provide the Commercial General Liability Insurance program, covering liability for bodily injury, personal injury, death and property damage while on Northlands site.

Northlands is available to assist each of you in the insurance application process by providing Foster Park Basket Insurance Brokers with your contact information. However, each Exhibitor is free to use any insurer of their choosing. We encourage each of you to speak with your current insurance provider first to see if adequate insurance is already in place.

Northlands is pleased to assist each Exhibitor, however, we wish to emphasize that Northlands in no way assumes liability for the insurance coverage (or denial of the same), or any loss or damage (including death) that may result from participating in Farmfair International 2016. Each participating Exhibitor is responsible for obtaining insurance and providing a certificate of insurance that is in compliance with each person's contract, in order to participate in FFI 2016.

C. Entries

19. Sale Livestock

All sale animals must be entered in the respective Farmfair International shows and/ or competitions, unless otherwise specified on the prize list, by the corresponding entry closing date. All sale livestock will be required to obtain a Livestock Release form before they will be allowed to leave the Northlands facility.

20. Sale Liability

Farmfair International is not involved in the sale of the animal and acts only as a facilitator in livestock sales, with no responsibility to purchaser or consignor.

D. Judging

21. Show Regulations

The showing of livestock will be under the jurisdiction of the association that governs that species of livestock or breed of animal. No persons other than judges, the officials and attendants holding animals being exhibited will be allowed in the Show Ring during judging. Order of classes for shows will be determined by their association and show committee representative(s).

22. Time of Judging

Farmfair International will produce show catalogues with time of show and class listings. Any entry not presented in the Show Ring at the time the section and class is scheduled will be disqualified.

23. Duties of the Judges

After each section is judged, the judge shall sign all judging sheets. The clerk shall ensure these sheets are picked up and returned to the show office as soon as completed; failing to do so will result in the results not being calculated or published. It is the responsibility of the breed associations and or show committee to pay all judges and official fees and expenses for the breed show(s).

24. Decision of the Judges

The decision of the judge(s) shall be final in all cases. In cases where fraud, misrepresentation, error or collusion is discovered after placings are declared, Farmfair International or such an appointed referee or official may make a decision regarding the final placement; from whose decision there will be final.

25. Animal Disqualification

If any exhibited animal is disqualified, no animal next in line shall move up. Only in the case of Grand Champion animal's disqualification will advancement of the Reserve Grand Champion animal will be considered. Farmfair International Show Management or such appointment official may make a decision regarding this advancement, from whose decision there will be no appeal.

E. Awards

J. Awards

67. Ribbons

Farmfair International provides first to third place rosettes in all beef shows, as well as division Champion & Reserve Champion rosettes and Grand and Reserve Grand Champion rosettes.

68. Banners/ Sashes

Farmfair International provides banners or sash for each breed show for the following:

- Grand & Reserve Champion Female
- Grand & Reserve Champion Bull
- Premier Breeder
- Premier Exhibitor

69. Championship Award

Any animal that has shown in its individual class and won a first or second prize within the appropriate division shall be eligible to win the Grand Championship Breed Award if applicable for the competition.

70. Interbreed Competitions

Interbreed Competitions are judged by a panel of judges. Prior to judging starting, a Master Judge will be selected by random draw.

In the event of a tie, the placing of the two tied animals will be reviewed. The animal with the most first places will be declared the winner. If first placing does not break the tie, the animal with the most second placing will be declared the winner.

If the tie cannot be broken based on the number of first and second placing, the ranking by the Master Judge will declare the winner between the tied animals.

71. Premier Breeder and Exhibitor Points

Premier Breeder – Points for this award go to the registered breeder's unit for animals shown in single classes. A breeding unit is defined as the immediate family breeding cattle under that farm name. Joint breeders are separate entities and will be awarded separate points. To eligible for this award, the breeders must be exhibiting in the show.

Premier Exhibitor – Points will be awarded to the show string exhibited (breeding unit) from which the animals are exhibited in single classes. In the case of jointly owned animals, points will be awarded to one owner as specified to the show commencing. The responsibility of designating owner lies with the owners. Fitting services are not eligible.

Points from a maximum of six head are used to calculate Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor total points.

The following point system will be in effect:

-Awards are based on points awarded to the first six places in the single breeding classes on the following basis:

1st – 6 pts 2nd – 5 pts 3rd – 4 pts 4th – 3 pts 5th – 2 pts 6th – 1 pt

-Awards will be calculated on the top six placing of each breeders or exhibitors string.

-Grand Champion and Reserve Champion do not gain additional points.

-In the event of a tie, the tie will be broken by placing in the breeder's herd class.

-Points awarded to animals in joint ownership can only be given to one owner. If the one owner is exhibiting they must decide prior to the show which owner will receive points.

K. Exhibitor Management

72. Veterinary Service

To Ensure the health and safety of all beef cattle at Farmfair International, basic veterinary services will be provided free of charge for all cattle exhibitors. Charges will apply for additional services or at the discretion of the veterinarian. Services and administered drugs/materials will be charged directly to the exhibitor through Dr. Roy Lewis.

73. Clipping Chutes

Designated clipping chute areas will be assigned. All exhibitors with a clipping chute will be required to purchase a clipping chute tag at a cost of $15 including GST per chute. Any chute not properly identified may be charged a penalty of $50 plus GST and removed from the building.

Clipping or grooming of cattle in the main aisles of the barns is prohibited. Chutes will not be allowed in the aisles behind the cattle on show day only at the discretion of the Barn Boss.

74. Night Tie-outs

All animals must tie-out each night. Each animal entered in Farmfair International will be charged a $15 including GST Tie-Out Fee. The Tie-out Fee includes initial bedding and daily bedding service from Saturday, November 6th, 2016 to Saturday November 12th, 2016. Daily bedding service will begin after 1 p.m. We ask that exhibitors have their tie-out beds cleaned out by noon to receive this service.

Tie-out space will be assigned prior to arrival by breed based on indoor stalling. Space allotted in the tie-out area is approximately three feet per animal. Exhibitors bringing panels should notify Farmfair International staff prior to arrival. Exhibitors bringing panels should judge their space accordingly.

All bulls over one year old must be tied in tie-outs at all times with a halter and neck rope. All other cattle may be turned loose on pens in tie-out area providing the pen is safely secured and inspected by the Tie-out Crew. Cattle in pens must be tied with a halter and neck rope.

Tie-outs will be available for move in starting noon (12 p.m.) Saturday November 6th, 2016. Permission to tie-out early at night must be approved by the Barn Boss (es). Request forms should be submitted to the Show Office a minimum of one (1) day prior to the date early tie-out is requested.

75. Tie-in/ Tie-out Times

All cattle must be tied in the Edmonton Expo Centre in their assigned stalls prior to 9 a.m. each morning from November 9th – 12th (inclusive). No exceptions to these times will be allowed. Failure to be in assigned stalls by this time may lead to disciplinary action at the sole discretion of the Farmfair International Barn Boss (es).

Exhibitors can commence nightly tie-outs at 7 p.m. each day; with the exception of Saturday November 12th, 2016 when cattle are not released until 8 p.m.

Breed Associations must obtain approval for early tie-out of cattle by request from the Barn Boss (es) with a minimum of 24-hours prior notice. (i.e. banquets, exhibitor functions, special events, ect.) Requests can be made at the Show Office.
