

The Carol Eigner Memorial Scholarship - $1500.00

The Carol Eigner Memorial Scholarship was designed to acknowledge a junior showperson with an interest in a niche breed. Like Carol, the recipient of this scholarship can be found to be heavily involved with the beef industry above and beyond the junior level. This individual is always willing to help no matter how tedious the task, and are mentors to those who may be less experienced in the industry. They are a role model to many, and reflect the same level of passion that Carol Eigner had for the agricultural industry.

Objective:

To highlight the success of the rising youth involvement in the beef industry through recognition of their achievements and career aspirations towards strengthening our beef industry, allowing further education of our beef youth through financial support and dedication to the future of the beef industry.
